Jack Vincent Corradino, Esq., is the founder and managing partner of Corradino & Papa, LLC, a distinguished personal injury law firm in Clifton, New Jersey. With over 35 years of legal experience, Mr. Corradino is renowned as a fearless litigator dedicated to achieving justice for his clients. His practice focuses on cases involving motor vehicle accidents, truck accidents, workplace injuries, slip-and-fall incidents, dog bites, product liability, medical malpractice, and more. Mr. Corradino graduated Suma Cum Laude from Seton Hall University and earned his Juris Doctorate from Widener School of Law in 1996, graduating with honors. At law school, he was a member and excelled in the Moe Levine Trial Advocacy Honor Society, reflecting his early commitment to excellence in trial advocacy. After law school, he clerked for the Honorable Judge Robert Passero, the Passaic County Presiding Assignment Judge.

Mr. Corradino is admitted to practice in New Jersey, New York, the U.S. District Court for New Jersey, and the Bar of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals. He is Certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a Certified Civil Trial Attorney, a distinction granted to less than 2% of New Jersey attorneys. Mr. Corradino has earned recognition for his extensive litigation experience. Over the years, Mr. Corradino settled thousands of cases helping their families with notable outcomes including, $15 million for premises liability involving Complex Regional Pain Syndrome (CRPS), $6.8 million for a Construction Accident, $5.8 Jury Verdict Construction Fall Down Case, $3.9 million for Medical Malpractice, $3.1 million Wrongful Death, $3.2 million Car Accident and many more. Mr. Corradino's fearless approach to litigation has secured membership in prestigious organizations, including the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, reserved for attorneys with significant financial verdicts and settlements.

Recognized by Super Lawyers for decades, Mr. Corradino has also been named to the Lawyers of Distinction and the National Association of Distinguished Counsel, ranking him among the top 1% of attorneys nationwide. He maintains active memberships in the American Association for Justice (AAJ) (state and national levels), AAJ PAC Interstate Trucking Litigation Group, Trial Attorneys of New Jersey, Passaic County Bar Association, and the New Jersey State Bar Association. As a passionate advocate for his community, his philanthropic endeavors are continuous. Mr. Corradino is a huge sponsor of the Boys & Girls Club in Clifton, purchasing multiple buses and donating significant funds to the club. He also purchased life-size mascots for Clifton High School, Christopher Columbus Middle School, Woodrow Wilson Middle School, and West Milford High School. He donates yearly to local schools, little league teams, city street fairs, non-profit organizations, and many benefit events such as Taste of Clifton. Every year Mr. Corradino gives numerous New Jersey High school Senior students, a $2,500 scholarship going to attend a New Jersey college.

Beyond his professional achievements, Mr. Corradino is an avid outdoorsman who enjoys multiple activities such as boating, hunting, kayaking, fishing, gemology, and paleontology. With a commitment to treating clients and staff like family, Mr. Corradino embodies a philosophy of compassion and tenacity. His ability to make a positive impact extends not only to his clients' lives but also to the broader community. As he puts it, "I'm blessed that I get to go to work and make positive changes in people's lives."
